The humble petition of M Sudersanacha

late Head Master of H. H the Maharanis

Girls School Mysore

Most humbly Sheweth

1 That the Maharanis Girls School was established in January 1881 and the then managing Committee appointed Your honors humble petitioner as Head Master of the Institution He continued as such till the middle of 1884 Needless it is to state that an averse public opinion against female education then put him into difficulties In proof of his statement may it please your honour to vide enclosures No 1 and 2 On your honors kind perusal of the other enclosures hereon attached it will be evident that the humble petitioner has spared no pains in promoting the education of the girls and increasing the strength of the Institution Soon after the school was brought into an efficient condition a graduate was appointed as Head Master in his stead Notwithstanding the discouragement shewn to your humble petitioner he continued to work as an assistant Master with great zeal and devotion till the end of November 1891 But at the end of a tenor of 11 years hard service when his service aptly deserved promotion he was thrown out of employ with a view of bringing in female teachers to the Institution (Enclosure No 3)

2 The unfortunate petitioner submitted applications to his Excellency the Dewan Chief Secretary Education Secretary and others but he did not receive due consideration from any one of them. Their replies are contained in the enclosures. At last the Government were pleased to order in Proceedings No $\frac{6332-41}{G\ 1469-92}$ dated 3rd November 1892 that School masters whose services have been dispensed with must be provided for It will be evident from the enclosure No 9 that the poor Petitioner should be given at least an appointment worth Rs 25 or 30. How unfortunate must he then be if he is provided only with a temporary appointment of Rs 20 as a Munsif Clerk in a District far away from his native place after more than ten years strenuous work in School in consideration of which his pay had gradually risen from Rs 20 to 42

3. It is also decided in Proceedings No $\frac{15157-9}{4337}$ of the 18th March last that the services rendered by the Petitioner to the Girls' School cannot be recognized as Govt Service eligible for pension. Alas! Even the municipal services on transfer are reckoned as Govt Service. The following facts facts go to confirm that your petitioners service in the Girls School is in all respects deserved to be recognized as service in the Palace. –

(a) Because the Institution was established in the name of H H the present Maharaja

(b) The seat of the Institution was originally the Jagan Mohan Palace then was transferred to the building erected by H H the late — Maharaja with his private fund

(c) The Institn was entirely under the supervision of the Palace officers viz Messrs Entelmen Rao C Chithambaram Iyer and A Narsim Iyengar

(d) That His Highness used to take warm interest in the progress of the School is evident from the enclosure No 4 Paras 4 and 10

(e) Monthly disbursements of Rs 3000 was all from His Highnesses Treasury

(f) Menial duties were all conducted by servants from the Palace establishment

Such being the case that your humble petitioners service though recommended by the present managing Committee of the Girls School "to consider their past services as rendered to Government" must be overlooked is entirely due to his misfortune. But he still hopes that the foregoing facts connected with his case may move your honor to kindly bestow a special consideration on his case

4 Thus deprived of his livelihood and neglected neglected of his service and advanced in age already numbering 51 leaving only a few years to make up 55 years of age – the age of retirement from service – Your humble petitioner craves mercy "How impossible it is that a man on whom depend many souls for maintenence, can manage with Rs 20 in a strange place and his dark future as well as his age can tempt him to begin to learn clerical work after spending a greater portion of life in School" your honors considerate and benevolent nature can easily perceive.

5 As there are at present several male-teachers working in the School and three new hands were recently appointed in June last. Your humble petitioner earnestly hopes that his past labours at the Starting of the Institution, his effecent continuance in school for more than ten years, his advanced age of 51 years and the unenumagnable distress which he was easily reduced to by his untimely retirement from School, may move your honor to re-appoint him in the same Institution as a teacher with his former pay of Rs 42 and with his past services recognized

For which act of justice he will ever pray as in duty bound

Begs to remain,
your honors most obedient Servant
M. Sudersanalhar
